Adjectives are frequently descriptive. That is, most often adjectives are used to describe a noun, or distinguish the noun from a group of similar objects. For example, an adjective might describe the color of an object.

the red pen

the blue pen

In Spanish, most adjectives change form, depending upon whether the word they modify is masculine or feminine. Notice the difference between “the tall boy” and “the tall girl.”

*el chico alto

*la chica alta

Adjectives also change form depending upon whether the word they modify is singular or plural. Notice the difference between “the tall boy” and “the tall boys” ; “the tall girl” and “the tall girls.”

*los chicos altos

*las chicas altas

Many common adjectives end in -o. These adjectives have four forms. The following words all mean “tall”:

alto

alta

altos

altas

The correct form of the adjective depends upon the noun it modifies. Is the noun masculine or feminine? Singular or plural?

pluma roja

red pen

libros rojos

red books

plumas rojas

red pens

Notice how the endings of the nouns and these adjectives are similar.

Adjectives that end in -e also change form for singular or plural. To form the plural, simply add -s.

*las chicas inteligentes

Adjectives that end in -e do not, however, change form for masculine or feminine.

*el chico inteligente

*las chicas inteligentes
*los chicos inteligentes

Similarly, most adjectives that end in a consonant do change form for singular or plural, but do not change for masculine or feminine. To form the plural, add -es.

*la chica popular
*el chico popular

*las chicas populares *los chicos populares

Let's review.

- Adjectives that end in -o have four forms: alto, alta, altos, altas
- Adjectives that end in -e have two forms: inteligente, inteligentes
- Most adjectives that end in a consonant have two forms: popular, populares (form plural by adding -es)
